++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Unsettled for the next few days, and cooler from Friday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Dry with some clear spells for some tonight, but light showers still possible. However, after midnight, cloud will thicken as a band of heavy and thundery rain drifts northwards across the region. Minimum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Friday:
A cloudy day with long periods of locally heavy and thundery rain. Perhaps some drier and brighter spells developing during the evening before a generally cloudy night. Much cooler. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Possibly a dry and bright start to Saturday, becoming showery later. Unsettled again on Sunday and Monday with thundery showers, merging at times into longer spells of locally heavy rain.
